

TRIPLE PLAY BY ITALIANS

One of the Finest Plays Ever on Rangers Field

IN GAME AGAINST BETHEL

The Home Team Was the Winner by the Score of 12 to 2—Smith, the Scotch Runner, Was Beaten in the Relay.

The Italian Athletic club base ball team added another victory to its long list at the Rangers field, when its members defeated the strong Bethel team by a score of 12 to 2, Saturday afternoon. The game was witnessed by one of the largest crowds which ever got together on the field for a ball game, there being between four and five hundred people present.

The Italians owed their victory largely to their ability at the bat, Dutton, the Bethel pitcher, being hit for a total of 14 safe ones, two of which were two-baggers. A total of seven errors on the part of the visitors also did considerable toward their defeat.

Henson was on the mound for the Italians and pitched a steady game and although he was hit at times the hits were scattered and only one of the two runs which the Bethel team registered was due to hits. This came in the ninth inning, when the Italians had about lost interest in the game.

The Bethel team failed to score in its half of the first. Nicora was up first for the locals and put a grounder to McMurphy, who fumbled it. Cella singled and Nicora went to third. Comelli hit to McMurphy and he again allowed the ball to pass between his hands and Comelli got to first and Nicora scored. David hit a grounder to second base and got to first on the choice when the baseman threw to the plate in an attempt to catch Cella, who scored. Carbo and Henson hit to Dutton, who threw them out at first, but Comelli and David both crossed the plate on the throws.

The Bethel team registered in its half of the second. McIntyre was up first and was out on an easy one to the pitcher. Putnam got to first when Cella threw his grounder a trifle wide to first. Newman got a single but it struck Putnam as he was running to second, retiring him. Emery singled and Newman went to second. Lawless drew a pass, filling the bases. Dutton got a long single to the right garden, but Broggi felled the ball in time to catch Emery at the plate.

In the last of the second Broggi was up first and met the first one fair in the field for a two-bagger to the left field fence. Calcegni fanned. Nicora was out short to first, advancing Broggi. Cella singled and Broggi scored. Comelli got to first when Webb dropped an easy one, but David shot a comet into Emery's hands and it was over.

Carbo was up first in the third and got hit. Henson rainbowed to Emery and Maberlin was out to short. Broggi swung the baton for another double and Carbo slid the pan. Calcegni fied out to Putnam.

Nicora started off in the fourth with a hot liner to left field for a single. Cella fanned. Comelli singled to deep left field and Nicora scored. David hit to the first baseman. Carbo singled and Comelli tallied. Henson and Maberlin followed with singles, scoring Broggi. Broggi was retired third to first.

It looked good for the Bethel team in the first of the fifth, but the Italians worked a triple play, retiring the side just as they were ready to do business. Lawless was up first and was ticketed free to the initial sack. Dutton made a single and Lawless advanced. Just here was where the prettiest exhibition seen on the grounds for some time took place. McMurphy followed Dutton at the bat and met a dope ball just right to land it in Henson's mitt. Henson doubled to second, catching Dutton, and Maberlin in turn threw to David, catching Lawless at third.

either side until the last of the eighth, when the Italians clinched the game by adding three more. Comelli singled to left. David repeated the performance and Comelli moved on a notch. Carbo put a rainbow into Putnam's territory, but the latter misjudged it and the bases were full. Henson hit into the infield but Lawless took a nap and missed the throw, allowing Comelli to score and still leaving the bases full. Maberlin fouled out to Lawless. Broggi hit into the infield and Lawless again had a fainting spell, as the ball was thrown to the plate to catch David and both he and Carbo registered. Broggi, however, was caught at second and Calcegni put a nice big one into Putnam's mitt.

Bethel registered one in the ninth. Webb singled. So did McIntyre. Putnam fanned. Webb was caught at third. Newman doubled and McIntyre scored. Emery fied out to Broggi and it was all over.

PRETTY RELAY RACE.

Smith Failed to Make Good His Promise to Beat Three Italian Runners.

Considerable interest was shown in the relay race which was given as an extra attraction before the game and for which the club offered a prize of $10. The race was won by the three runners of the Italian club, who defeated William Smith, the Scotch mile runner, in 9 minutes and 58 seconds for the two miles. The conditions of the race were that Smith should run against any three members of the Italian club.

Peter Purcell was chosen for the first runner for the Italians and went the first full mile of six laps with the Scotchman, finishing a good dozen yards behind Smith. Charles Ruzzi was next and ran the next three laps, finishing but a trifle behind the Scotchman. By this time it appeared that Smith had undertaken too much and although he ran pluckily he was unable to hold the stride when Arthur Nicora took Buzzi's place at the beginning of the 10th lap and the Italian had no trouble in beating the Scotchman.

No Games To-day.

There will be no games to-day in either the National or American leagues. The funeral of the late President Pulliam occurs, and out of respect to his memory all contests have been called off. This means double headers all along the line Tuesday. The Red Sox and Tigers will book up for two games at Huntington avenue. Detroit must play five games in three days, so the fans will surely get their money's worth.

BOY WINS BOGY RANDICAP.

Arthur Taylor Cnp Contested For at Elkanok Links.

Manchester, Aug. 2.—The annual 36-hole bogey handicap competition for the Arthur Taylor memorial cup at the Elkanok C. C. Saturday was won by G. Sewell Clark of Philadelphia, a 15-year-old golfer, who finished all even sided by an allowance of 16 strokes for each round.

Percival Gilbert, Brae Burn, the Massachusetts champion, who was obliged to concede two strokes, was going nicely in the morning, and with 76 was all even for the round. In the afternoon, however, he finished 7 down, probably because he started a few minutes after completing the morning round, as it was on the last holes that he weakened.

BRITT LOSES TO SUMMERS.

American Boy Knocked Out in The Ninth.

London, Aug. 2.—Johnny Summers, the English featherweight pugilist, defeated Jimmy Britt, the American lightweight, in the ninth at the Memorial Ground in West Ham Saturday afternoon. The contest, which was scheduled to go 20 rounds, was for $500 a side and half of the gate receipts. Britt, who was somewhat fat and slow, was outclassed from the beginning. He was knocked down in the second and took the count of seven, but came back fresh in the third. Summers had the advantage in the succeeding rounds, and when the going rang for the ninth he attacked Britt furiously, raining blows upon his body and face. The American was worn down and finally dropped flat on his back and was counted out.

New Park For Brooklyn.

Though the team may be too close to the cellar to satisfy the Brooklyn fans, Charles Ebbets, president of the Superbas, evidently believes they will be big money getters next year and is having plans drawn up for a new stadium at Washington park. The diamond may be shifted around and a double deck grand stand built where the 25 cent bleachers now stand and where there is always a good breeze blowing. The diamond will be laid where the left field foul line now stands, which would add the catcher in getting after foul balls in the sun.

Boston Nationals' New Player.

The first deal of the season between the Southern league and a major league club is announced in the sale of Second Baseman Cranston of the Memphis team to the Boston Nationals. Catcher Ball and an outfielder, in addition to a cash consideration, figured in the trade.

BELIEVES MOSQUITOES DROVE HIM TO SUICIDE

Sheriff Finds Evidence of Battle Between Insects and Man Who Killed Himself.

Vancouver, Wash., Aug. 2.—Sheriff Sappington, after investigating the case of an unidentified man who was found hanged believes that the stranger, rendered desperate by mosquitoes, chose that means of escaping them.

On the last evening that the dead man was seen alive he passed a number of people on the river road and spoke to some of them, fighting mosquitoes the while.

In that part of the country the river is receding, leaving large pools of water and much land, which is veritably alive with the insects. Going as far as he could along the road he was stopped on account of the water. Being unable to proceed further he spent the night, or part of it, in the cabin of a wrecked steamer.

Having two pipes, he appears to have spent a long time smoking in an effort to drive away the mosquitoes, as he left two empty tobacco sacks. Tracks were seen in the soft earth where he had danced around, attempting to shake them off.

Unable to endure longer their bites and stings, he took a heavy line from the cabin and went to the foot of a large apple tree leaning far out over the water. Then he took off his coat and hat and folded them neatly and laid them down. Climbing to the top of the tree and making one end of the rope fast to the tree and the other to his neck he swung off.

CHILD'S TALK TO DOLLY REVEALS MOTHER'S SHAME

"Not My Papa," Babbles Eastman Girl, and Mrs. Eastman and Bowen Are Arrested.

New York, Aug. 2.—After eluding pursuit since May 29 last, when it is alleged they eloped from Manchester, N. H., Mrs. Charles N. Eastman and Frederick Bowen are in the hands of the police of Newark, N. J., who had been appealed to by the woman's husband, Mrs. Eastman gave her age as thirty-two years. (Bowen said he was twenty-two.) Mrs. Eastman was found in Paterson by Detective King, of Newark, who previously had arrested Bowen. When she learned Bowen was a prisoner she consented to accompany the detective to Newark. With her was her seven-year-old daughter, Doris.

It was through the prattle of Doris, her doll in the boarding house of Mrs. Eastman, that the police learned of the elopement. The alleged elopers were traced. Mrs. Eastman heard Doris say: "Be good and I'll take you to see your little brother soon." The landlady questioned Doris, who said her little brother was in Manchester. "That's where my real papa lives," the girl added naively. "You see, our father is Eastman, not White, and this isn't my real papa, it's my mamma and he tell me to call him papa. His name is Bowen."

Mrs. Eastman sent word to Eastman in Manchester, and he came to Newark. The arrests followed.

ANOTHER SHOCK FELT.

Mexico City Finds Its Famous Cathedral Unsafe.

Mexico City, Aug. 2.—Another severe earth shock occurred at Mexico City at 12:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Its duration was 53 seconds. The building rocked violently, and the people rushed out of the building into the streets. So far as known no damage was done. The damage caused in Mexico City by the earthquake Friday morning is greater than was at first supposed. The cathedral was so badly damaged that it has been condemned. Many buildings have been cracked. The American school has been rendered unsafe. Some of the main have been broken, and the water supply of the city is seriously curtailed. No news has been received there yesterday morning from the state of Guerrero.

A dispatch from Vera Cruz, Mex., received at 21 P. M. Tuesday, says that a serious fire followed the recent earthquake in the town of Hologuigen. The water mains were broken by the quake and the fire, breaking out in the poorer quarter of the town, spread rapidly. Only a change of wind saved the entire town. A hundred and fifty families are homeless. The city of Acapulco, which was almost destroyed Friday by an earthquake and tidal wave, has been suffering all summer from an epidemic of fever. Lack of sewage system was given as the cause of the condition, which was so bad that reports to the municipal council declared many buildings were sinking into the earth which had been saturated with sewage from cesspools.

ANOTHER GREAT FLIGHT.

The Zeppelin 11 Makes 280 Miles Against Head Winds.

Berlin, Aug. 2.—The dirigible balloon Zeppelin 11, steered by Count Zeppelin himself, descended at Frankfurt safely between 2 and 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after having sailed from Friedrichshafen, a distance about 220 miles. Half of the time the flight was made against strong head winds. Almost the whole population of the city was in the streets or on the air navigation exposition grounds to receive Count Zeppelin and loud cheering, band-playing and factory whistling began when the airship was sighted at height 900 yards, coming at a 40 miles an hour rate.

HOUSE PASSES TARIFF BILL

Adopts Conference Report
by Vote of 195 to 183

CLOSE VOTE ON MOTION

To Recommend—Eighteen Republicans
Vote Against Accepting the Report and Two Democrats Support It.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—With the noteworthy small majority of only 12 votes, the House at 9 o'clock Saturday evening passed the Payne tariff bill by voting to concur in the conferees' report. The vote was 195 to 183, 19 Republican votes being cast against it and two Democratic votes for it. It was a very close shave and a surprise; seven votes would have brought defeat. But a still closer shave was the vote on the motion to recommit, which was defeated by 191 to 186 votes. Three votes more in the affirmative would have sent the bill back to conference. The administration and other persuasive powers and steam rollers did not labor in vain all day. The White House had its disaffected there and labor. But while this work was going on and when it seemed the disaffected had been whipped into line, and it was even acknowledged so much success had been attained, the progressive senators swooped down upon the House and reasoned with their followers there and almost effected what they set out to do, the sending back the bill to conference or its recommitment.

The first vote was on the previous question to recommit, which Mr. Payne moved, and the triumph seemed almost a good one, for this motion carried by 15 majority. But it indicated trouble, for the normal Republican majority is in excess of 40. Representative Gillett figured rather unfortunately in the test vote on the recommitment, which almost prevailed. He had gone to his committee room, and although he kept close watch of the time, miscalculated, and reached the chamber too late to vote. Representative Levering, being ill, did not vote.

Among the Republicans voting "no" was ex-Speaker Keifer of Ohio, and to the indignation of the Republicans who objected to his being given permission to state the reasons for his vote in the Record. Mr. Mann also voted "no." The day was full of oratory in the House. The proceedings began at 10 a. m., and it was arranged to begin voting at 8 o'clock in the evening. The special rule providing for the leather schedule was easily carried. Only a few Democrats voted against it. The reading of the conference report was insisted upon and took more than two hours, and then the fireworks began. They were on the whole not impressive. The heat was excessive in the chamber and the full attendance made it more so. Mr. Payne led off and comforted himself very well. A good speech was by Malloy of New York for high rates on print paper. He is the former New York Assembly leader and represents a print-paper making district. Representative Mann ably presented the other side, but rather dogmatically. The Democrats charged that the tariff had not been revised downward, but upward to the extent of 2 per cent. over the Dingley bill. Champ Clark, the minority leader, showed indifferent knowledge of the bill, and certainly was in error regarding the meaning of the maximum provision. The mistake was not complimentary to a leader. The failure to retain cotton bagging on the free list brought out a defense of the duty, and it was shown that a flourishing manufactory would be otherwise destroyed in Mr. Gillett's district. Representative Gardner defended the boot and shoe duties.

The last speaker was Representative McCall. He spoke for 14 minutes and, according to prearrangement, with full knowledge that the report was in some danger of being voted down, he explained the effect of voting down the report, saying that this would lead to chaos and a continuation of tariff agitation with nobody knew what results. He declared that the final bill met in full the pledges of the Republican party and was genuine downward revision and would stand as the first great act of the administration of President Taft and if the report met defeat the administration would early in its career meet a great blow. There was much applause from the crowded, brilliant gallery and the perspiring statesmen below.

The conference report goes to the Senate to be considered to-day. The report is not out of the woods there, for the Western hide men are crying that they have been deceived in the boot and shoe schedule, which they said was to place all shoes at 10 per cent, whereas some have been placed at 15 per cent. They say they feel like voting to send the report back to conference as a consequence. Probably this will simmer out. It is said however, that seven progressives will vote against the report, including Beveridge, but that Gamble, Burkett and Brown will vote for it.

The Senate, while some senators were out, permitted the smuggling into the deficiency bill of an amendment to increase the speaker's salary, which was refused last winter. It is said that the speaker and the vice-president have used their influence to effect this. The speaker and the vice-president will also be allowed automobiles.

Quite the talk is the violent quarrel between the president and the speaker over the Litterer glove schedule
